GORDON HAY SCHOLARSHIP STUDENT APPLICATION FORM

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

The Gordon Hay Scholarship Fund is a competitive, merit-based scholarship. The scholarship is awarded annually to one selected student from the Charlotte region based upon pursuit of excellence, community engagement, artistic or technical accomplishment, academic achievement, financial need, references, and desire to pursue a non-performance career in the performing arts. All applicants must be a high school senior, a college freshman, or a college sophomore at the time of application. Applicants are advised to thoroughly review the guidelines for specific criteria relating to the scholarship. The scholarship, to be administered through the Education Department of Blumenthal Performing Arts, is designated for non-tuition expenses which may include professional conferences, seminars, workshops, participation in an unpaid internship program, technology, books, supplies, and professional performances. The scholarship may be appropriately spent during any calendar year of the recipient's four-year college career or apportioned over several or all four years. This is a non-renewable scholarship. Scholarships are awarded without regard to race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender or sexual orientation.
