Connect with the Supporters of Charlotte's Comedy Scene

Blumenthal Performing Arts partners with Queen City Comedy and the Comedy Zone to put on the region's largest comedy festival every year, the Queen City Comedy Experience (QCCE).

By bringing in national headliners to perform alongside our local stand-up comedians and improv teams, we hope to shed light on and build a local comedy scene in Charlotte, which is integral to building culture in a major city.

With over 5,000 tickets sold for 37 separate events in 2022, QCCE will bring back the laughs this September.
