

BLUMENTHAL
ARTS

In April 2024, Christy Majors became a part of the Blumenthal Arts team, assuming the role of Chief Financial Officer. With over two decades of experience in finance and accounting, Christy has dedicated seventeen years of her career to the not-for-profit sector in Charlotte. Her responsibilities encompass the oversight of Blumenthal Arts' financial strategy, ensuring both fiscal stability and compliance.

Before her tenure at Blumenthal, Christy served for five years as the Chief Financial Officer at McLeod Centers for Wellbeing, headquartered in Charlotte. During the previous twelve years, Christy served in a variety of finance roles including treasurer and controller at Queens University of Charlotte. Christy's professional journey also includes five years at Charlotte Pipe and Foundry before transitioning to the not-for-profit sector.

Originally from Beckley, WV, Christy moved to Charlotte to pursue her Bachelor of Accounting degree at Queens College (now Queens University of Charlotte). She furthered her education by obtaining a Master of Science in Strategic Leadership from Mountain State University. Christy, along with her husband Mark, resides in south Charlotte with their spoiled miniature dachshunds, Carter and Benson.
