

BLUMENTHAL
PERFORMING ARTS

Rachel Blake is honored to be a part of the Blumenthal team. Growing up in Charlotte as a proud theater kid on and offstage, she enjoyed shows at the Blumenthal, Matthews Playhouse, CPCC, and in school. She has over a decade of experience at nonprofits in Kentucky and around North Carolina at the Lexington Children's Theatre, the Southeastern Theatre Conference, YWCA Greensboro, and Crisis Assistance Ministry.

Rachel is constantly amazed at the power and significance that the arts have on our lives. When we come together to experience a live performance that is the ultimate act of community and such a special experience.

In her free time, you can find Rachel spending time with friends and family going on adventures, trying new hobbies, and relaxing, preferably by a body of water or somewhere in nature.
